Welcome

A warm welcome to the Rheezerbelten, the pancake restaurant where every pancake still traditional way is baked: just in the pan on the stove.

Pure natural or all the way to your own preference with sweet or savory ingredients: everything is possible.

As a proud member of the society of Chartered Pancake restaurants, we guarantee a preparation according to traditional methods with a freshly made dough of own recipe and a large choice of variations. The same applies for guests with food allergies or a special diet: we think along with you, so ask us for all the possibilities.

Not such a fan of pancakes? Also for a delicious salad, a ham/cheese sandwich with fried egg (, spareribs) or another dish, the Rheezerbelten is the perfect place.

We wish you a pleasant stay. And don't forget: do you have a comment or improvement point: tell us. Are you satisfied, tell the others!

And the farmer plowed on ...

In the days of ploughing, haying and harvesting, the farmers worked the land for long days. Heavy work, that asked for a nutritious meal. That's why the women prepared bacon and ginger pancakes with an omelet against it in the early morning for lunch. The special recipe for this pancake/omelet combination is preserved and for many of our guests the undisputed favorite on the menu ...

Diffelen

Diffelen, located in a loop of the river Vecht, had its own es and his own markegronds which used to be mainly of heather and peat existed. The Diffeler sheeps grazed here. Now there is only forest North of Diffelen.

Rheeze

Rheeze is an old Saxon village with a brink that's still clearly recognizable. The village is located between the Valley of the Vecht River and the Rheezerbelten, a beautiful ridge, covered with Heather, oak scrub and pine. The varied landscape is formed by the high rolling esgrounds, meadows, bushes and old fighting pits with a variety of water plants.

The Vechtdal

The Overijssel Vechtdal includes roughly the area along the Vecht between the border of Drenthe in the direction of Zwolle and Staphorst. The river wends all winding way through the beautiful countryside and passes through picturesque villages, estates, forests, and heaths. A landscape in which continues times have been preserved and where you have plenty of space and tranquility.
